Pastor's Corner

"It is good to say thank you to the Lord, to sing praises to the God who is above all gods. Every morning tell the Lord, 'Thank you for your kindness,' and every evening rejoice in all of God's faithfulness."

Psalm 92:1-2, TLB

Every year as this time I find myself reflecting on just how thankful I am to be the pastor of such a wonderful group of people as the North Warren Presbyterian Church. I truly consider myself blessed to have the privilege to serve among you and work side by side with you as we carry out the work of Christ. On behalf of Anne and myself, we want to say thank you for your generosity and support over the 20 years we have served among you and the gracious way you recognized us this past month for pastor appreciation! We are truly blessed, and as 1 Corinthians 1:4 says, we "give thanks to God for you because of God's grace given you in Christ Jesus."

And you know something, thankfulness should be part of all our relationships. No matter who it is that we are relating to, we should always tell others how we are thankful for them and what they do for us. During the Thanksgiving holiday, we make a concerted effort to focus on our blessings and express our gratitude to God for all the Lord does for us. But thanks should be on our lips every day. We can never say thank-you enough to our children, parents, friends, leaders, and especially to God. When thanksgiving becomes an integral part of our lives, we will find that our attitude toward life will change. We will become more positive, gracious, loving, and humble. We will show forth to others the love we have in our hearts for our God as well as our loved ones.

There are four significant aspects of thankfulness we can find in the verses of Psalm 92, four elements of true thanksgiving! The first element is that we are to remember what God has already done for us in our lives. Second, we should be willing to tell others about what God has done for us. Third, we should show God's glory to others as we act on our thankfulness. And fourth, in response to our thankfulness, we should offer God our gifts of self, time, and resources. For let's face it, if we are truly thankful, our lives should show it!

It is true that we become Christians through God's unmerited grace, not as the result of any effort, ability, intelligent choice, or act of service on our part. However, out of gratitude for this free gift, we will seek to help and serve others. While no action or work we do can help us obtain salvation, God's intention is that our salvation will result in acts of service. We are not saved merely for our own benefit, but, as Ephesians 4:12 tells us, "for works of service, so the body of Christ may be built up."

So as we approach Thanksgiving 2017, let us consider anew how we can show our thankfulness to others and to God. Let us remember that thankfulness is not only something we express in words, but it is something we also need to express in our actions. For when we show forth our thankfulness in both words and actions we give glory to God, and help others to see Christ in us! May you and your family have a blessed Thanksgiving this year!

In the Name of Christ,

Buddy 😊

Pastor Appreciation Soup & Pie

Sunday, October 22nd was a busy day around the church. We celebrated Pastor Appreciation Month with a Soup and Pie Luncheon right after church. As usual a full spread of delicious soups and pies weighed down the counters and tables, and everyone who attended was well fed.

This form of gathering is always a favorite with great food and fellowship. Keep an eye out for the next event like this because you won't want to miss it.

Recent Baptism

It was an exciting day on October 15 when Soojye Gustafson and her husband Ian Gustafson, along with Pastor Buddy, baptized their infant child, Nova Lucille, born back in February of this year. Exciting, not only for them, but for all of the congregation, as this is the birth of another member of not just the Gustafson family, but our church family as well. Besides Nova's baptism, Soojye has rejoined the congregation, which is what so many of us may have done in our younger years.

We have a responsibility, as we all pledged that day, to help Soojye and Ian bring Nova up in the ways of the Lord, a challenging task for all of us. We lament the loss of so many young people from our ranks these days, but here is the opportunity to help Nova's parents raise her in a Godly fashion. Certainly, we see our children wander, but it is such a joy when they eventually do come back.

King Solomon instructs us in Proverbs 22:6 to "Start children off on the way they should go, and even when they are old they will not turn from it." Certainly a verse which requires some patience at times in many situations, but one that seems to be true so often as well.

Therefore, we need to be there to encourage and pray for not only our children, but also that each of us may grow spiritually as well as physically.

Turn Clocks Back

Daylight Savings Time ends on Sunday, November 4 at 2:00 AM. Don't forget to turn your clocks back one hour before going to bed on Saturday evening.

Winter Address

If you are going south for the winter, please notify the church office of your temporary address.

Work as Worship 1-Day Local Church Retreat

God has a purpose for us on this earth. That calling is to be on mission for God where He has placed us. And since many people spend the majority of their waking hours on the job, we have to stop compartmentalizing life into "spiritual activities" and "work activities." How are we living examples of the gospel while we work?

You're invited to the 2017 Work as Worship Retreat, where eleven influential business leaders and pastors will discuss what it looks like to connect

WORK AS WORSHIP faith and work.
1-DAY LOCAL CHURCH RETREAT

Taking place as a 1-Day Local Church Retreat on February 23, 2018, the live event in Dallas will be web-streamed to over 2,000 churches around the world and North Warren Presbyterian is one of them..

Join Patrick Lencioni (Author, The Five Dysfunctions of a Team), Joel Manby (CEO, SeaWorld), Phil Vischer (Creator, VeggieTales and Jellyfish Labs), Wendy Davidson (President, US Specialty Channels Kellogg Company), Matt Chandler (Lead Pastor, The Village Church), and others in a day filled with real-life stories, biblical teaching, and practical wisdom that will equip believers in the marketplace to see their work as an opportunity to care for their families, fulfill their calling, and bring glory to God.

On the web, you can go to <https://www.workasworshipretreat.org> to learn more or register for the Retreat.

HANGING OF THE GREENS

The Flower Committee would like to invite everyone to help decorate the Sanctuary for the upcoming Christmas Season. We will be meeting at the church at 10:00 AM on Saturday, December 2. We can use tall strong folks who don't mind ladders to help construct the pre-lit Christmas tree. Putting it together requires a little heavy lifting. We also have our wreaths and garlands to hang, decorations for the tree and our outdoor Nativity in the front yard.

In other Flower Committee related news, did you see the Poinsettia Order Form in this issue of the newsletter? On that form you can order flowers, make contributions to help the Deacons with their holiday efforts, or contribute to the continued beauty of our church during the holiday season. You will be able to find the form in upcoming church bulletins, but why not fill in the form in this newsletter, write a check, and take it to church this coming Sunday? Then you'll know it's been taken care of.

Volunteer Opportunities

Although the need is constant, here are a few specifics that are before us now.

- The Flower Committee is seeking a new member with duties beginning in January. Please see Marcia McKown or Ivy Whilton.
- Property Committee has some projects that need some attention.
- The Sound Booth staff will soon need a new hand or two.
- Sharing place is a worthwhile venue for your volunteer time.
- Several other committees within the church are looking for volunteers to help with various activities.

It is never too late to contact someone on one of the committees or the office and let them know of your willingness to put your faith into action.

News from the Pews

It's Time for Christmas Shopping

My family tells me that I am hard to buy for. If I want something, I go get it. I don't need anything. When I make suggestions, they feel that it takes all the fun out of it. And I'm old fashioned and really don't like a gift card.

However, I think I have the solution. Have you thought of giving a piglet or perhaps a pair of goats? Maybe some ducks or chickens. Sheep and alpacas are always nice too. Of course, I won't get these somewhat unusual gifts, but these items could be purchased and given in honor of someone like me. The actual gift will go to a person in a developing country who desperately needs the goat or the sheep or whatever other gift you have chosen.

Two resources available to our church (many more exist, but these are some that we have worked with before) are World Vision (<https://donate.worldvision.org/giftcatalog#active> a Catalog is available on the table outside the church office) and Presbyterian Mission Agency (www.presbyteriangifts.org and catalogs are available on the table outside the church office as well).

Prayer Chain

If you would like to be included in our email prayer chain please provide your email address to the church office. We have found this to be a very effective method of notifying our prayer warriors of those who are in need of prayer. We are happy to add you so that you can be praying for those in need.

If you or someone you know would like the congregation to be praying for them, simply call or email the church office or Pastor Buddy with your request and we will pass it on.

Parking Reminder

With winter weather fast approaching, session is strongly urging you to take advantage of the parking lot and leave the on street parking on Church Street for those with mobility issues who need to park closer to the church on Sunday morning.

Presbytery Highlights - Seed Money Put To Good Use

The Seed Money given by the Presbytery in the amount of $214 was used by the Presbyterian Church of Kane as an outreach to the community in the form of a free lunch to anyone, rich or poor alike. It has been held the second Tuesday of every month since its inception and serves 80-100 lunches both on the street outside the church or in their fellowship hall. It is sustainable by donations from those who use it. It has surpassed any expectation and is a huge asset to the community.

Congregational Meeting

A congregational meeting will be held on December 5 immediately following the worship service for the purpose of electing persons to the Auditing, Community House, Day Care, Memorial, and Personnel/Finance

News from the Pews

Committees. The 2018 budget will be presented to the congregation along with a vote to approve the 2018 Pastoral Terms of Call, as well as any other business as is appropriate according to the Book of Order.

Warren Public Library News

A couple of events are coming up in the not too distant future that may be of interest to some of our younger people. Mrs. Claus has close ties to our church and we are always happy to let everyone know when she will be out and about in the community. Here are some events at the Warren Public Library you might like to attend.

AFTER SCHOOL WITH MRS. CLAUS: Stop by the Children's Department of the Warren Library on Wednesday, December 6 at 4:30 PM to visit with Mrs. Claus as she reads stories, sings songs and shares some holiday snacks and crafts. Preregistration is appreciated. Registration sheet will be available next to the staff computer in the Children's Department starting November 6.

Ho! Ho! Ho! Santa and Mrs. Claus: Santa and Mrs. Claus will be at the Warren Library on Saturday, December 9 from noon until 1:30 PM. Mrs. Claus will read holiday stories and Santa will join in the festivities to sing a song and visit with the children. Children will also enjoy holiday snacks and crafts. Preregistration is mandatory and this program is limited to 40 children. Registration sheet will be available next to the staff computer in the Children's Department starting November 6

Monday Morning Ladies Bible Study - Just in time for Advent

"Singing Mary's Song" by John A. Stroman

When Mary learns that she will be the mother of the Messiah, she sings an unusual song. It is not just a sweet lullaby anticipating her baby's birth. Instead, Mary's song is an aria of freedom and hope for the homeless, the hungry, the refugee, and the powerless.

Gain a deeper understanding of the Advent journey through the eyes and experience of Mary, the mother of Jesus.

John Stroman is a teacher and writer in Tallahassee, Florida. After serving as a United Methodist pastor for 40 years, he taught New Testament studies at Trinity Methodist Theological Seminary in Ghana, West Africa. Stroman holds a doctorate in theology from Boston School of Theology.

Week 1: October 30, 2017: SINGING MARY'S SONG focuses on Mary and the birth of Jesus, her relationships with Joseph, Elizabeth, and Zechariah; and her visit to the Temple and encounter with Simeon and Anna.

Week 2 November 13, 2017: IN THE FULLNESS OF TIME focuses on Galatians 4:4. Considering the many factors in the Greco-Roman world that converged at the time of Jesus' birth, we recognize that God indeed had an appointed time for the birth of Christ.

Week 3 November 27, 2017: COMING OUT OF EGYPT explores the meaning of Mary and Joseph's flight into Egypt.

Week 4 December 11, 2017: PREPARING FOR JESUS' BIRTH guides us in preparing both our hearts and minds for Christmas Day.

The book cost is $8.00. The ladies meet every other Monday morning and is open to all women. See Gloria Lindell for more information.

Faith, Prayer, and Stewardship

In His sovereignty and wisdom, Almighty God has ordained two primary ways for people to obtain money and material possessions. The first way is a "four-letter" word that may not appeal to everyone. God expects us to "work" for what we need. As we have seen previously, sometimes work comes to us disguised as a great burden, but in reality, the ability to work is one of life's great blessings.

The second primary way for us to obtain the money and material possessions we need is to ask God for them. As He did with Solomon when he succeeded his father David as King over Israel,

God is saying, "Ask for whatever you want me to give you."

The fourth chapter of the book of James tells us that there are two reasons our needs go unmet. Either we do not ask God, or when we do ask, we ask with wrong motives. Instead of using God's provisions to glorify Him, we want to use them to satisfy our selfish desires.

Think of it in this way: God has a warehouse full of blessings that He wants to shower upon us, but He cannot do so because either we fail to ask or we ask for the wrong reasons. In either case, we do not receive His full measure of blessing and provision.

Chuck Swindoll wrote, "In my opinion, the words 'You do not have because you do not ask' are among the most convicting words we will ever read. Persistence must characterize our prayers. There is no place for reluctance or timidity or, for that matter, uncertainty. Do you have a need? Then do the simple thing and the best thing first: Ask in simple faith."

Faith is taking God at His Word. Faith is believing that God exists and that He hears and answers prayer. Nothing more. Nothing less. Faith is claiming the promises of God from the Word of God. Faith is following the direction of the Holy Spirit as we pray God's promises back to Him with the expectation that He will answer and provide.

Faith is what motivated the elderly cab driver in New York City to give this as his creed: "Believe all that God has said; obey all that God has commanded; expect all that God has promised."

Or as Augustine wrote centuries before, "Faith is to believe what we do not see, and the reward of this faith is to see what we believe."

The Lord Jesus asked this penetrating question, "If you, then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good gifts to those who ask him?"

The key to getting our needs met is not talking about our needs. It is not telling our friends and family. It is not even making a prayer list. It is simply asking God, according to His will, to supply what is needed. Or as an unnamed poet wrote, "We can ask, believe and receive, or we can talk, doubt, and do without."

What do you want God to do for you? Will you take Him at His Word today and trust Him by asking?

POINSETTIAS

The Christmas season will be upon us soon and the Flower committee is busy with preparations for decorating our church. We are asking for your help. You may help in any or all of the following areas:

Poinsettias will be $8.00 each and will be of varying colors. All flowers are to be picked up following the Christmas Eve Service. Please bring a bag to cover your plant and protect it from the cold.

Donations of $$$ to the Deacons Fund will assist them in providing for those in need in our community. Your help is greatly needed again this year.

Those who would like to make a donation of $$$ to help defray the cost of renewing and/or replacing some of the decorations may do so as well.

All flowers and donations may be placed in memory or honor of family, friends, loved ones, etc. Please indicate your choice and place in the offering plate or return this form to the church office.

Deadline is December 10, 2017.

Thank you for your participation. The Flower Committee

2018 Youth Mission Trip

I would like to know who (7th –12th grades) wants to go on a mission trip next summer. If you are totally in for the trip, please let me know! If you have a preference of a week and/or place, also let me know! Thinking about the 3rd or 4th week in June, but am open. I'm looking for willing missionaries!

Thanks! Anne Ward

Our World Vision sponsored child, from Ghana, Yamba!

We have received correspondence from Yamba and World Vision! Her 15th birthday is Nov. 12th and she is in her Junior High School! She is grateful for our sponsorship of her.

She lives in the northern part of Ghana in the Saboba District. Yamba lives with her parents, who are both farmers, and siblings. She helps them on their farm. Yamba's favorite hobby is playing football. Look for information from the program manager in that area and a new photo on the bulletin board!

Note For Parents:

Whether your child or children is/are 7 or 17, there are often concerns or questions a parent may have...OR maybe you just want to make sure you are doing the right things...OR there are some issues... I am willing to help...

Should you have any questions, concerns, or even just thoughts about parenting issues, please feel free to contact me. I am willing to be a resource person and will search high and low for information and/or resources and/or "seasoned" parents for your parenting needs, not that I have the answers necessarily.

I don't know what support you need, but feel free to let me know or offer suggestions.

“The Lego Batman Movie” Family Movie Night

There are big changes brewing in Gotham City, and if he wants to save the city from The Joker's hostile takeover, Batman may have to drop the lone vigilante thing, try to work with others and maybe, just maybe, learn to lighten up.

As usual, a Lego movie is fun for the whole family, even if that family doesn't have kids. On Saturday, November 11 at 6:30 pm, plan on getting up off the couch and coming on down to the church for a fun filled evening of fellowship and laughter with this hilarious take on the world's most confused hero. Free admission and free refreshments – you can't beat that!
