Prayer of Confession

We thank you, Lord God, for brave and believing men and women who have served you and this country down through the years. By their energies, we have been made safe and secure, and your church has been strengthened. Yet we often forget the sacrifice of those who have gone before, we live as if we are your only children. Forgive us Lord, and help us to remember all those Christians who have served God and Country, and may we follow as they followed in the way, truth, and life of Jesus Christ, in whose name we pray. Amen.

Lay leader today is Gary Brumagin.

Ushering today is Mark Ash, Sheryl Ash, and Bill Gross.

Sound Booth Operator today is Joshua Ward.

The Sanctuary Flowers today are given by Maureen Gonano in memory of her husband, Lowell Gonano.

Nursery workers today are Missy Turner and Natasha Ferry.

Greeting the congregation at the close of the service today are Rev. Buddy and Anne Ward at the Church Street door and Gary Brumagin and Bill Gross at the State Street door.

THANKSGIVING BASKETS: The deacons will be making baskets with a Thanksgiving meal for needy families in the community again this year. They will accept donations of frozen turkeys and the North Warren Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts will conduct a food drive to collect additional food for the meal. The deacons will purchase any additional items needed to provide a nice dinner for the holiday. You can make your donations until November 16.

For those of you not in North Warren, we will have a box here in the church for those of you who want to contribute to the food drive. Non-perishable foodstuffs that are rich in protein and are essential to providing adequate nutrition, are always desirable items including foods such as crackers, peanut butter, jelly, cereal, pasta, dried beans, canned tuna or chicken, meals in a can such as soup, stew, or chili, olive or canola oil, or basic spices. Check dates before you bring your donations in. 1 in 9 families depend on help from a Food Bank – it's really more common than you may think. Cash or check donations may also be made to help the deacons purchase specific needs.

Pastor Appreciation Soup and Pie Luncheon will be held today, November 11 immediately following the worship service. This is a popular event, because not only can we let Pastor Buddy and Anne know that they are appreciated, but also because of the great homemade foods that we enjoy. Martha is also collecting donations for a gift and although it's too late to donate to that gift, a little extra cash included with the gift is always nice. Everyone is invited, so see you downstairs.
